TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pastor's Letter

Dear Parish Family,

Last Sunday, we celebrated Catechetical Sunday. In gratitude, we honor all our Parish catechists who volunteer their time working diligently to help us in the faith formation of all the children enrolled in our Religious Education Program. Their sacrifice is greatly appreciated.

In today's Gospel, we hear about the Parable of the Vineyard in which a generous landowner is sensitive to the plight of others as he hires day laborers for his vineyard. Each day, at dawn, he would go out to hire the number of laborers he needed for the day. But, he would go out four other times during the day to hire more laborers because he saw them "standing idle."

What is the lesson of the parable? In God's Kingdom, there is no cause for idleness, no limit on "wages," no reason to regard waiting as unproductive effort. The workers, like the landowner, are persistent. Instead of giving up and going home, they remain in the marketplace seemingly "standing idle." Actually, their "idleness" was not simply doing nothing—theirs was active waiting. These workers persistently remain ready and willing to work. Of such is the "Kingdom of Heaven." The "Kingdom of Heaven" consists of those who persist in awaiting God's recurring call, and who respond willingly, no matter what hour the call comes. The last are first, not because of the number of hours they work, but, because of their openness to God's call, no matter when it comes and their faithful response. God calls each of us to use whatever our gifts are to advance the growth of the Kingdom: God "pays" us not in dollars and cents, but with the free gift of salvation, which is immeasurable, unlimited, endless and overflowing. The parable also teaches us that God is both just and generous to all the laborers simply because the divine "wages" are always a free gift, undeserved and more than we can earn or expect.

God invites us to think of work in a different way: by our labors we are building up God's Kingdom and spreading God's reign in our world. God calls us to be the laborers in the divine vineyard—a call we first answer at Baptism and then continually answer throughout our lives each time we say "yes" to the divine call. This divine, saving work is a privilege. We actually share in God's saving deeds. God uses us to bring salvation to the world. Do we say "yes" to God's invitation to work in His vineyard?

May God bless you all.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Alex

Seek God...

call God's name.

The Respect Life/Social Justice Ministries of both parishes are the sponsors. The St. Thomas More Knights of Columbus will lead the walk. Snacks and beverages will be available at St. Andrew's.
