FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pastoral Reflections

THE JOURNEY NARRATIVE

The journey narrative is a special feature of Luke's gospel, which is the one we read on Sundays this Church year. Within this literary framework are some of the most familiar and loved stories of Jesus. Some are found only in Luke, such as The Good Samaritan and The Prodigal Son. Other parables, sayings, and teachings have parallels in Matthew and Mark but do not occur in the same order. The arrangement of material within the journey to Jerusalem is clearly intentional. Luke reminds readers at key points in the narrative that we are on our way to Jerusalem and encourages us to connect the individual stories to the larger theme.

The phrase "set his face" is unique to Luke and suggests Jesus' resolute and single-minded purpose toward His destiny. Jerusalem has a prominent place in Luke. Luke begins and ends in the temple in Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the location of Jesus' death but also His Resurrection and Ascension. Acts, also written by Luke, begins in Jerusalem with Jesus' Ascension and the Pentecost story.

The story Luke tells is firmly located in the faith and institutions of Israel from beginning to end. After Jesus was circumcised, Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to the Temple to "do what was customary according to the law." On this occasion, Simeon tells Mary, "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed...". On the first leg of the journey to Jerusalem, Jesus and his disciples travel through a Samaritan village and evoke the long-standing antipathy between Samaritans and Judeans over the Temple, both a fulfillment of Simeon's prophecy and a foreshadow of opposition ahead.

THE DISCIPLES' JOURNEY

The sayings on discipleship at the outset of the journey indicate that Jesus does not travel alone. He has disciples eager to follow Him. Jesus' instructions to would-be disciples seem harsh and unreasonable. No time to arrange for a funeral, even for a parent. No time to say good bye to family and friends. No one who looks back is fit for the Kingdom of God.

His words here may strike us as uncharacteristic of our image of Jesus, but they make an important point about discipleship. Jesus' response to legitimate requests to postpone the journey reminds Christians in every generation that there are always justifiable excuses to defer the journey or put off the claims of discipleship. Other important matters compete for our attention. Some must make heart-wrenching choices, but there is urgency about Jesus' mission to bring forth God's reign. Jesus compels us to proclaim the Kingdom of God. This is our Christian vocation and must be our first priority.

SOCIAL DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH

Pope Francis recently appointed Archbishop Christophe Pierre as the new apostolic nuncio to the United States. During an interview with the editor of America magazine, Archbishop Pierre spoke about the Pope's priority in paying attention to people who suffer. "When we speak about the social doctrine of the church, we always say the church is about the centrality of the human person. It's about solidarity, it's about humanity, about justice. These are not ideas; these should be behaviors. The church should practice 'social justice' in all senses of the phrase. Respect life from the beginning to the end, he said, but also respect the work for justice, the work against inequalities. All these things."

"All wanderers are not lost."
