MASS BOOK OPENING

The Mass Book for 2017 will open to begin scheduling Masses on:
Tuesday, November 8, following the 9:00 AM Mass in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Parish Center

In order to accommodate those families and friends of the recently deceased throughout the year and enable the majority of our parishioners to participate in the celebration of the liturgy, the total number of Mass requests accepted from each individual, on that day, will be limited to two weekday Masses and two weekend Masses. Please note that, in addition to Masses, we offer Memorials for the hosts, wine and sanctuary candle in the church and the chapel. We are hopeful that these guidelines will allow the majority of St. Andrew's parishioners the ongoing benefit of obtaining a Mass or Memorial for their loved ones during the course of the year.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pastor's Letter

Dear Parish Family,

This is "World Mission Sunday", a day set aside for the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to the missionary movement. The collection is for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, which provides support for the life-giving and hope-filled work and witness of priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in mission churches. Let us continue to pray for all missionaries throughout the world and extend generous support which will directly benefit the Mission Church today. That support reaches clinics caring for the sick and dying, orphanages providing a place of safety and shelter, schools offering education. Your financial help will surely make a difference in the lives of many people in other parts of the world. Thank you for your prayers and generous support.

The gospel today requires our close attention. It is the story of two believers, a Pharisee and a tax collector. It is important to underline the facts that both men were believers in the same God, both belonged to the same religion and both worshipped in the same temple. But what do we see? The self-righteous Pharisee goes to the temple to remind God that he religiously goes to temple, pays tithes, fasts twice a week and prays. The tax-collector, on the other hand, stood timidly in a dark corner at the back, beat his breast, saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" It was this tax-collector, Jesus says, who went down to his house justified. What was wrong was the Pharisee's whole attitude. He was using God only as a sounding board for his supposed virtues. Deep down inside, the Pharisee did not really feel the need for God, patted his own back and despised others. On the other hand, the humble man acknowledged his abject poverty before God and saw the need for change. Like the Pharisee and the tax collector, we often come to God's house to offer worship and prayers. Like them, we hope to go home at the end of the service reconciled and at peace with God. Let us learn from the tax collector the secret of worshipping in a manner that is acceptable to God.

We congratulate the couples who received the Sacrament of Matrimony this weekend during the "Mass Wedding" celebrated by Fr. Rafael. We assure them of our continuing prayers and support.

God bless you all.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Alex

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
