MEMORIALS DURING THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 30

CHURCH HOSTS
 In loving memory of ANDREW SOK by THE SOK FAMILY

MASS BOOK OPENING

The Mass Book for 2017 will open to begin scheduling Masses on:
Tuesday, November 8, following the 9:00 AM Mass in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Parish Center

In order to accommodate those families and friends of the recently deceased throughout the year and enable the majority of our parishioners to participate in the celebration of the liturgy, the total number of Mass requests accepted from each individual, on that day, will be limited to two weekday Masses and two weekend Masses. Please note that, in addition to Masses, we offer Memorials for the hosts, wine and sanctuary candle in the church and the chapel. We are hopeful that these guidelines will allow the majority of St. Andrew's parishioners the ongoing benefit of obtaining a Mass or Memorial for their loved ones during the course of the year.

Pastoral Reflection

November 1 is All Saints Day, a day to remember all those faithful men and women who don't have their own day on the church calendar but who are with God in heaven. Who are the saints? Saints are simply people who pay attention with their whole mind, heart and soul, who pay attention to the presence of God in their heart and to God's presence in the lives of others at home, at school, at work, in the neighborhood, and the poor and vulnerable around the world.

Saints are people who pay attention to being honest and faithful, fair and just, loyal and trustworthy, pure and compassionate. Saints are people who pay attention to their own faults, who make amends for their sins and who forgive others. Saints are people who pay attention to the consequences of their habits, choices, decisions, spending and politics.

On this All Saints Day, let us thank you, Lord, for all the saints each of us has known in our own life.

I praise and thank you for those who loved me ...

for those who raised me, for those who first told me of Jesus, for those who taught me so many things, for those who forgave me,
for those who protected me, for those whose patience blessed me,
for those who touched my soul, for those who healed my heart,
for all who sacrificed for me ...

for those who gave me my best memories ...

for those who kept my secrets, for those who gave me courage, for those who shared their hope ...

for those who nurtured my gifts and talents ...

for those who gave me faith...

for those who encouraged and guided me ...

for those who gave me a second chance, those who were my rock,

for those who comforted me, for those who challenged me...

for those who shaped the person I've become...

For all these saints in my life, Lord, I thank you and I praise you....

Help me, Lord, to be a saint like this in the lives of those around me...

Amen.

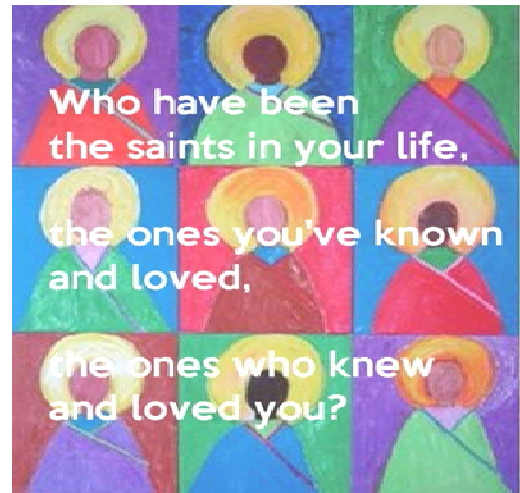

-- Adapted from "The Concord Pastor" --

The Book of Remembrance will be available in the Church to inscribe the names of beloved deceased family members and friends on All Souls Day, November 2. The Book is placed adjacent to the Baptismal font in the church and will remain there through November. All are welcome to memorialize their deceased loved ones by placing their names in the book.

VOICES THAT CHALLENGE :

OPPOSE PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDE

Last week the NJ General Assembly narrowly passed an assisted suicide bill, the Aid in Dying for the Terminally Ill Act (A2451). It now goes to the NJ Senate (S2474) and may be voted on soon at a meeting of the Health, Human Services and Senior Citizens Committee. The NJ Catholic Bishops and NJ Right to Life have both asked that we contact our legislators asking them to Vote NO on this proposed legislation. Our Catholic faith tells us that human life is sacred "from conception to natural death." Visit www.njrtl.org or <http://njcatholic.org/faith-in-action> for further information, or send an email to your Representative and Senators.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
