 Thank you for your cooperation and attention to this request.

THE FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT

 Come, Spirit, soothe our soreness of mind and heart with surprising touches of kindness that restore our ability to be caring and considerate of others.

Independence Day Reflection

The 4th of July is just a day, but to us Americans, it means much more than that. It's an opportunity to thank God for the abundant blessings that He has bestowed upon us, and on our country. If you look around the world, it's easy to pick out nations where instead of peace, freedom, and prosperity, they experience war, oppression, hunger, persecution, sickness, and suffering. And so, we find ourselves being thankful for the blessings we have as Americans. Despite the struggles our nation finds itself in at this particular time, we're thankful for what we have.

One of those things we're thankful for, especially today, is liberty. In fact, today is called "Independence Day." But sometimes, although we Christians have a great love for our country, we find ourselves in a difficult place with how American values interact with our faith. Liberty can sometimes devolve into license, and becomes the freedom to be able to do what I want. Sometimes the view of our independence, whether we realize it or not, can be an independence from God. Rather than being independent, we become overly dependent on ourselves! Rather than being free, we're caught in the shackles of our own pride and selfishness!

But really, it's being dependent on God where we find ourselves most independent. It seems strange, but depending on God allows us freedom. It's not necessarily the freedom to do what we want, but it is the true freedom to be able to do what we ought. It is the freedom to do as we've been shown by Christ, the freedom to love others freely and without reservation. So really, while we celebrate our independence as a nation, maybe this calls us to look at our own lives and see how dependent we are on God. Where do we turn when we find ourselves in difficult times? Do we turn to God, or to ourselves? Where do we turn when we find ourselves in the midst of failure? Where do we turn when we find ourselves in the midst of success?

May God continue to bless us with a true and beautiful understanding of our independence. May He call us to those noble virtues that made this country what it is for us and for future generations of Americans. May God bless us with peace, prosperity, and the common good. And may God bless America.

- - Excerpt from Fr. Michael Grosch's Independence Day Homily in 2012 - -

Jesus on the 4th of July

*We gather 'round to celebrate on Independence Day,
Pay homage to our country as the children run and play.*

*With barbecues and picnics and fireworks in the air,
The flag we own is proudly flown to show how much we care.*

*The stars and stripes spell freedom, she waves upon the breeze
While bursts of colors can be seen above the towering trees.*

*This is all quite wonderful, we revel in delight
But, God above in divine love has brought this day to light.*

*With just a stroke of liberty, a touch of His great hand,
He gave democracy to us and helped this country stand.*

*The stripes upon our stately flag were touched by His sweet grace,
Each star of white that shines so, bright reflects His loving face.*

So, as you turn to face the flag for battles that were fought, be filled with pride for those who died and freedoms that were bought.

*But, don't forget to thank the One that gives the bright display
The reason why we paint the sky on Independence Day.*

- - Marilyn Ferguson 2003 - -

God bless America,
Land that I love,
Stand beside her and guide her through the night with a light from above;
From the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam,
God bless America,
My home, sweet home.
God bless America,
My home, sweet home.

- - Irving Berlin - -
